Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claim 1, drawn to a solution that comprises peptides at a concentration below 4%, and with a limitation on the size of the peptides.
- II. Claims 2-8, drawn to a two-part dialysis solution.
- III. Claims 9-11, drawn to a solution that comprises peptides at a concentration below 4%.
- IV. Claims 12-18, drawn to a solution that contains peptides at any concentration, and which can also contain glucose at any concentration.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other.

Group IV differs from the other groups in part because Group IV imposes no upper limit on the peptide concentration. Accordingly, the search for Group IV compositions would have to include references which disclose mixtures of peptides for nutritional or medicinal purposes.

Groups I and III are distinct. Group III imposes no upper limit on the molecular weight of the peptides; accordingly proteins such as albumin would be encompassed. In addition, Group III could potentially encompass compositions which contain a pharmacologically active agent.

Applicant is advised that for the response to this requirement to be complete, an election of the invention to be examined must be indicated, even if the requirement is traversed (37 C.F.R. 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a diligently filed petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(h).

In the event that Group IV is chosen, applicants are required under 35 U.S.C. §121 to elect a disclosed specie for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The first "specie" is a selection as to whether the composition does or does not contain glucose. The second "specie" is a selection as to the concentration of the peptides that are present.

Applicant is advised that a response to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a generic claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

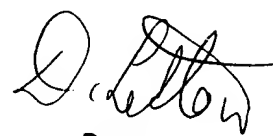

Upon allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentable distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. §103 of the other invention.
